PUBLIC LIBRARY
OF THE
CITY OF BOSTON

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

Art. I.

The Rooms shall be open on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, from 10 o'clock A.M. to 8 P.M.; on Tuesdays and Fridays from 10 A.M. to 5 P.M.; and on Saturdays from 10 A.M. to 9 P.M., excepting the legal holidays and such other days as the Trustees may direct, — provided that the President may direct the Library to be closed for a part or the whole of any one day, reporting the fact to the Trustees at their next meeting.

Art. II.

The following persons shall be entitled to the use of the Rooms, and to borrow books from the Library for home use, upon signing a promise to obey its Rules and Regulations: —

1. All inhabitants of Charlestown above the age of sixteen years, known to the officers of the Library as proper persons to enjoy its privileges, or so recommended by some responsible citizen, who shall thus make himself liable for any loss resulting therefrom.

2. All clergymen and teachers having regular occupation in the city; all members of the High School, and such scholars of the Grammar Schools as may be recommended by the sub-committees of said schools, and approved by the Trustees.

3. Any other inhabitant of Charlestown, depositing the value of the volume asked for, if permitted to circulate (or of the set to which it may belong), for which a receipt will be given; which sum shall be repaid whenever the book and receipt are returned, after any fines incurred for injury to the book or its improper detention have been deducted.

Art. III.

Every person entitled to borrow books from the Library shall receive from the Librarian a printed card, on which the book asked for shall be designated by its catalogue number, in blanks left for the purpose; and this card must always be presented to the Librarian or his Assistants, as the only mode of obtaining any book from, and returning any book to the Library. If the card is presented for a book and the book is not to be found, the card will be returned for the applicant to insert other numbers. A list of all persons entering their names for the purpose of borrowing books shall be kept in the Library, the residence of each individual, and the number of his or her card, being inserted against the name.

ART. IV.

No person shall be allowed to borrow for home use more than one volume in any one day, or to have out of the Library more than one volume at a time; and no book shall be retained by the person borrowing it more than fourteen days. Nor shall the person returning a book be at liberty to retake the same until the next day. The fine for retention of any volume over the time specified shall be two cents for every day it is so retained.

ART. V.

When any book, on account of its great popularity, is likely to be frequently called for, the time of its retention from the Library may be limited to one week, or half a week, the time of its retention being made conspicuous on its cover; and if such book is retained beyond the specified time, the person so retaining it shall pay the same fine as is provided in Article Fourth.

ART. VI.

Any book retained two weeks beyond the time prescribed by these regulations shall be sent for by the Librarian, and the expense incurred in obtaining it shall be paid by the person who has so retained it.

ART. VII.

All borrowers of books shall give notice to the Librarian of any change in their place of residence.

ART. VIII.

All injuries to books, beyond a reasonable wear, and all losses, shall be made good, to the satisfaction of the Trustees of the Library, by the person liable; and any book not returned within one week after demand has been made for it by the Librarian, shall be regarded as lost.

ART. IX.

All books are required to be returned to the Library fourteen days before the Annual Examination in August, under penalty of a fine of One Dollar; but seasonable notice shall be given by the Librarian.

ART. X.

No person having a book from the Library shall lend it to any person not a member of the same household.

ART. XI.

No person owing a fine or forfeiture shall receive books from the Library until the same is paid.

ART. XII.

All persons visiting the Library Rooms will be required to demean themselves quietly; and no conversation will be allowed in the rooms.

Any person abusing the privileges of the Library, by improper or offensive conduct, will be denied admission to the Library Rooms.

ART. XIII.

Persons entitled to the privileges of the Library may receive books for consultation while the room is open, and the Librarian shall enter all books thus withdrawn, and erase the entry when they are returned. If any person neglect to return any book to the Librarian, he shall pay the same fine that would be charged for a week's detention over the time prescribed by the Regulations.

ART. XIV.

Books of Reference, and those deemed by the Trustees unsuitable for general circulation, shall not be loaned, except by an order signed by at least two of the Trustees.

ART. XV.

All books belonging to the Library may, at the discretion of the Librarian, be used in the Reading Room, — a discretion which he is required by the Trustees to exercise, especially in the case of minors, and in regard to books of great value or rarity.

ART. XVI.

Every person who may visit the Reading Room shall return each of the pamphlets and periodicals such person may have used to its proper place, and shall return each of the books used to the Librarian.

ART. XVII.

All conversation, and conduct inconsistent with the quiet and orderly use of the Reading Room, by the persons resorting to it, are prohibited.

ART. XVIII.

Any person abusing the privileges of the Reading Room by unbecoming conduct, or by the violation of any of the regulations, shall be reported to the Trustees as soon as may be, and by them excluded from the Room for a time or permanently, according to the nature and degree of the delinquency or default; but in case of any gross offence, the Librarian shall act summarily in the matter, and cause the offender to be at once expelled from the Room, reporting the case to the Trustees as soon as possible in writing, for their final decision.

FORMS
